

BOTH / NEITHER / EITHER

Both winners and losers can study in the same class.

We use these words when we talk about two things or two people.

Word	Meaning
both	the two together (ikkalasi ham)
neither	not one and not the other (hech qaysisi)
either	one of two (bittasi)

BOTH = TWO THINGS TOGETHER

- Structure:

- both + noun + and + noun

- Examples:

- I like both tea and coffee.
 - She speaks both English and Korean.
 - He is both a teacher and a writer.
 - We visited both London and Paris.

BOTH + VERB / ADVERB

- BOTH can come before verbs/adverbs
- Examples:
- He both plays football and swims.
- She both sings and dances.
- They both arrived late.
- We both agreed with the decision.

BOTH WITH PRONOUNS / PEOPLE

- noun/pronoun + both OR both + noun/pronoun
- Examples:
 - We both know him.
 - They both like pizza.
 - Mike and Tom both study English.
 - The girls both passed the exam.

NEITHER

- NEITHER = not one and not the other
- Structure:
 - neither + noun + nor + noun
- Examples:
 - Neither Ali nor John came to class.
 - Neither tea nor coffee is ready.
 - Neither my mother nor my father drives a car.
 - Neither the teacher nor the students were late.

NEITHER + VERB

- Examples:

- He neither called nor emailed me.
- They neither played nor studied yesterday.
- She neither smiled nor spoke.
- I neither like this book nor understand it.

EITHER = ONE OF TWO OPTIONS

- Structure:

- either + noun + or + noun

- Examples:

- You can have either tea or juice.
 - Either Monday or Tuesday is fine.
 - Either Ali or Karim will come.
 - I will buy either a car or a bike.

EITHER IN NEGATIVE SENTENCES

- either = negative meaning (not one, not the other)
- Either/neither + ~~plural noun~~ = Wrong
- Examples:
 - I don't like either options. = I like neither options.
 - She didn't invite either of them. = She invites neither of them.
 - We don't need either book. = We need neither book.
 - He doesn't know either answer. = He knows neither answer.

COMMON PATTERN FIX

- WRONG:

- He neither wrote or phoned ✗

- CORRECT:

- He neither wrote nor phoned ✓
- He didn't write or phone ✓

VERB AGREEMENT (IMPORTANT)

- With NEITHER...NOR:
 - Neither Tom nor his friends are ready. (plural)
 - Neither Tom nor his brother is ready. (singular)
- Verb agrees with the closest noun.

PRACTICE EXAMPLES

- Fill in the gaps:
- I like ____ apples ____ oranges.
- ____ Ali ____ Bob came to school.
- You can choose ____ tea ____ coffee.
- She ____ sings ____ dances.
- We didn't invite ____ of them.

