

Adverbs of Manner

Adverbs of Manner (How?)

- Adverbs of manner describe how an action is done. They usually answer the question "How?"
- She danced beautifully. (Qanday raqs tushdi? — Chiroyli)
- He drives carefully. (Qanday haydaydi? — Ehtiyotkorlik bilan)

Adjective	Adverb
beautiful	beautifully
careful	carefully
quiet	quietly
slow	slowly
happy	happily
skillful	skillfully

Basic Position: After the Verb

- The most common position is after the verb.
- Structure: Subject + Verb + Adverb
- Susan smiled cheerfully.
- Sam speaks softly.
- He writes carelessly.
- The baby slept peacefully.
- Aziz answered politely.

After the Object

- If there is an object after the verb, the adverb usually comes after the object.
- Structure: Subject + Verb + Object + Adverb
- He gave the money reluctantly.
- They speak English well.
- I entered the classroom quietly.
- The old man carves wooden figures skillfully.
- Dilshod completed the task quickly.

Verb + Preposition + Object

- When we have - Verb + Preposition + Object - the adverb can be in two positions.
- Position 1: Verb + Preposition + Object + Adverb
 - He looked at me suspiciously.
 - John listened to him attentively.
- Position 2: Verb + Adverb + Preposition + Object
 - He looked suspiciously at me.
 - John listened attentively to him.
- Both are correct.

Long Objects

- If the object is long (contains a clause or another verb), put the adverb before the preposition.
- Structure: Subject + Verb + Adverb + Long Object
- He looked suspiciously at everyone who got off the plane.
- John listened attentively to every word his teacher told him.
- Nigora listened carefully to everything the professor explained.
- Not Natural:
- ❌ He looked at everyone who got off the plane suspiciously.

Long Objects in Verb + Object Structures

- Short Object - Adverb comes after the object.
 - She picked up the glass carefully.
 - He opened the door slowly.
- Long Object - Adverb comes before the verb.
 - She carefully picked up all the bits of broken glass.
 - He angrily denied that he had stolen the documents.
 - They secretly decided to leave the town.

Meaning Changes Depending on Position

- He angrily denied that he had stolen the documents.
 - Meaning: (Uning inkori jahldor edi.)
- He denied that he had stolen the documents angrily.
 - Meaning: (U o'g'irlikni jahldor tarzda qilganini inkor qildi.)
- They secretly decided to leave the town.
 - Meaning: (Ular yashirincha qaror qilishdi.)
 - They decided to leave the town secretly.
- Meaning: (Ular shahardan yashirincha ketishga qaror qilishdi.)

Character and Intelligence Adverbs

- Some adverbs describe whether the action itself was wise, foolish, kind, generous, etc.
- Foolishly | kindly | generously | sensibly | stupidly
- carelessly | bravely | selfishly | cruelly | unreasonably
- I foolishly forgot my passport. (O'zimni ahmoqona tutib pasportimni unutdim.)
- He generously paid for all of us. (U hammamiz uchun saxiylik bilan to'ladi.)

Equivalent "It was ... of somebody ..." Structure

- These sentences can often be rewritten.
- I foolishly forgot my passport. = It was foolish of me to forget my passport.
- He kindly waited for me. = It was kind of him to wait for me.
- She generously helped us. = It was generous of her to help us.

End Position Changes Meaning

- He spoke kindly. (U mehribon ohangda gapirdi.)
- He kindly spoke to me.
- (Uning men bilan gaplashishi mehribonlik edi.)
- He answered the questions foolishly.
- (Uning javoblari ahmoqona edi.)
- He foolishly answered the questions.
- (Savollarga javob berishning o'zi ahmoqona ish edi.)

Summary Table

Position	Example	Meaning
After verb	She smiled happily .	How she smiled
After object	He finished the work quickly .	How he finished it
Before preposition	He looked suspiciously at me.	How he looked
Before verb	He angrily denied the accusation.	Anger describes denial
End of sentence	He denied the accusation angrily .	May change meaning
Character adverb before verb	He foolishly forgot his keys.	The action was foolish
Character adverb after verb	He spoke foolishly .	The speech was foolish