

SENTENCE ADVERBS

What Are Sentence Adverbs?

- Sentence adverbs are adverbs that express the speaker's opinion, attitude, judgment, or comment about the whole sentence.
- Unlike adverbs of manner, place, or time, they do not describe how, where, or when an action happens.
- Adverb of Manner - He answered carefully.
 - "carefully" describes how he answered.
- Sentence Adverb - He obviously knows the answer.
 - "obviously" expresses the speaker's opinion about the whole statement.

Common Sentence Adverbs

Adverb	Meaning	Adverb	Meaning
actually	aslida	fortunately	baxtga ko'ra
apparently	ko'rinishidan	unfortunately	afsuski
certainly	albatta	luckily	omadimizga
clearly	aniqki	unluckily	omadsizlikka ko'ra
evidently	ravshanki	frankly	ochig'ini aytganda
obviously	yaqqol	honestly	rostini aytganda
presumably	taxminan	naturally	tabiiyki
probably	ehtimol	officially	rasmiy ravishda
undoubtedly	shubhasiz	admittedly	tan olish kerakki
definitely	mutlaqo, aniq

Position in a Sentence

- After the Verb "BE"
- Structure: Subject + be + sentence adverb
- He is obviously intelligent.
- The answer is clearly correct.
- She is certainly talented.
- This book is definitely useful.

Position in a Sentence

- Before Other Main Verbs
- Structure: Subject + sentence adverb + main verb
- They certainly work hard.
- He actually lives next door.
- Mary obviously knows the answer.
- We probably need more time.

Position in a Sentence

- Between auxiliary and main Verb
- Structure: Subject + auxiliary + sentence adverb + main verb
- They have presumably sold their house.
- She has certainly improved her English.
- We have obviously misunderstood the instructions.
- He has undoubtedly answered correctly.

Position in Questions

- Sentence adverbs usually come before the main verb in questions
- Have you definitely decided to go?
- Has she actually finished the project?
- Are they certainly coming tomorrow?

Position in Negative Sentences

- Sentence adverbs usually come before the negative form because they comment on the whole sentence.
- Natural
 - You apparently didn't submit the report.
 - He obviously isn't ready.
 - They probably won't come.
- Less Natural
 - ❌ You didn't apparently submit the report.

Sentence-Initial Position

- Many sentence adverbs can be placed at the beginning of a sentence.
- Structure: Sentence Adverb + comma + sentence
 - Apparently, he knew the town well.
 - Actually, it would be better to wait.
 - Certainly, education is important.
 - Clearly, this plan will cost more.
 - Evidently, she knew nothing about it.
 - Obviously, we need more information.

DEFINITELY

- Important Exception:
- "Definitely" is rarely used at the beginning.
- Natural
 - They will definitely miss the train.
- Unnatural
 - ✗ Definitely, they will miss the train.

DEFINITELY

- Important Exception:
- "Definitely" is rarely used at the beginning.
- Natural
 - They will definitely miss the train.
- Unnatural
 - ✗ Definitely, they will miss the train.

Sentence Adverbs

- Sentence Adverbs Usually Separated by Commas: These adverbs often appear at the beginning or end and are separated by commas.
 - Fortunately, we arrived on time.
 - Unfortunately, the meeting was cancelled.
 - Luckily, I had my passport.
 - Frankly, I disagree with you.
 - Honestly, I don't know the answer.
 - Admittedly, the task was difficult.

Sentence Adverb	Meaning
Honestly, I don't know her.	Rostini aytsam
Frankly, this is wrong.	Ochig'ini aytsam
Fortunately, we succeeded.	Baxtimizga
Unfortunately, you failed the test.	Afsuski
Obviously, he is right.	Yaqqol
Clearly, this won't work.	Aniqki
Apparently, Nozima left early.	Ko'rinishidan
Probably, they will come next time.	Ehtimol

Summary

Position	Example
After BE	She is obviously tired.
Before main verb	He certainly works hard.
After auxiliary	They have probably left.
Beginning of sentence	Clearly , we need help.
Negative sentence	He apparently didn't call.
With commas	Fortunately , we arrived early.

