

Adverbs of Degree

Adverbs of degree tell us how much, how strong, or to what extent something is.

Questions: How much? To what degree? Qanchalik? Qancha darajada?

Common Adverbs of Degree

Adverb	Meaning	Adverb	Meaning
very	juda	almost	deyarli
too	haddan tashqari	nearly	deyarli
quite	ancha, butunlay	enough	yetarlicha
rather	ancha	hardly	deyarli emas
fairly	ancha	scarcely	deyarli emas
really	haqiqatan	barely	zo'rg'a
absolutely	mutlaqo	much	ancha
completely	butunlay	far	ancha
extremely	nihoyatda

Position: Before Adjectives and Adverbs

- Most adverbs of degree come before the adjective or adverb they modify.
- Structure: Adverb + adjective | Adverb + adverb
 - You are absolutely right.
 - John is completely mad.
 - I am almost ready.
 - She is extremely intelligent.
 - They played extremely well.
 - The movie was really interesting.

ENOUGH - Position

- Unlike most degree adverbs, enough comes AFTER the adjective or adverb.
- Structure: adjective + enough | adverb + enough
 - This room isn't big enough for us.
 - Abbas didn't work quickly enough.
 - Madina isn't old enough for this class.
 - The water isn't warm enough.

Enough + Infinitive

- Structure: adjective + enough + to + verb
- I am strong enough to lift the box.
- He is old enough to drive.
- She is smart enough to solve the problem.
- We are rich enough to buy a new house.

FAR / MUCH with Comparatives

- Structure: far/much + comparative
- This book is much better.
- The repairs cost much more than expected.
- It is far cheaper now.
- He is much taller than his brother.
- The exam was far easier than I thought.

FAR / MUCH with Superlatives

- Structure: far/much + the superlative
- She is much the best candidate.
- This is far the best solution.
- They are far the best students.
- It was much the most interesting lecture.

TOO

- Structure: too + adjective | too + adverb
- He is too fat. | She is too young.
- I drive too fast. | The room is too small.
- Meaning: More than is desirable. | Keragidan ortiq.
- FAR TOO / MUCH TOO - Juda ham ortiqcha.
- He drives far too fast.
- The room is far too small.
- There were far too many people.
- This task is much too difficult.

Degree Adverbs with Verbs

- These adverbs can modify verbs: Usually before the main verb.
- almost | nearly | just | hardly | scarcely | really | rather | quite | little
- He almost fell.
- I nearly forgot.
- She just arrived.
- He could hardly hear.
- I really enjoyed the movie.
- We quite understand the problem.

MUCH with Verbs

- Much often comes after the verb.
- Examples
- I don't like it much.
- Thank you very much.
- He didn't enjoy the film much.
- She doesn't travel much.

ONLY

- Only goes before the word it modifies.
 - He only lent the car. Meaning: He didn't give it.
 - These shoes only cost $20. Meaning: The cost was just $20.
 - I was only kidding. Meaning: Men shunchaki hazillashgandim.
- Only modifies the verb
 - He only lent the car. (U faqat qarz berdi.)
 - Only modifies the object (He lent only the car.)
 - (Boshqa narsani emas, faqat mashinani.)

JUST

- Like only, just comes before the word it modifies.
 - I'll just buy one.
 - I just had enough money.
 - He had just arrived.
 - It's just dreadful.
- Important Difference
 - Just sign here. Bu yerga faqat imzo qo'yning.
 - Sign just here. Aynan shu yerga imzo qo'yning.

FAIRLY vs RATHER

- Both mean - To a moderate degree – Ancha - But there is a difference.
- FAIRLY—Usually with positive or neutral ideas.
 - Tom is fairly clever.
 - The film was fairly captivating.
 - The weather is fairly warm.
 - The hotel was fairly comfortable.
- RATHER—Often with negative ideas.
 - Peter is rather stupid.
 - The film was rather boring.
 - She looked rather exhausted.
 - The room is rather small.

Meaning Difference

- Fairly Hot - Pleasantly hot
- The soup is fairly hot. (Yoqimli issiq.)
- Rather Hot - Too hot
- The soup is rather hot. (Biroz ortiqcha issiq.)
- Fairly Slow - Acceptable
- His speech is fairly slow.
- Rather Slow - Slower than desired
- His speech is rather slow.

Articles with Fairly and Rather

- Fairly - Article comes first.
 - a fairly interesting book
 - a fairly light box
- Rather - Can come before or after article.
 - a rather boring film
 - rather a boring film
 - a rather heavy box
 - rather a heavy box

QUITE

- Meaning 1: Completely - With non-gradable adjectives.
- Structure: quite + adjective
- The bottle is quite empty.
- You are quite right.
- It is quite true.
- Are you quite sure?
- Meaning: Completely - Mutlaqo

QUITE

- Meaning 2: Fairly / Rather - With gradable adjectives.
- Structure: quite + adjective
 - She is quite smart.
 - I am quite busy.
 - The house is quite large.
 - He is quite friendly.
- Meaning: Rather / fairly - Ancha

Quite + a + noun

- Structure: quite a + adjective + noun
- Bu struktura "juda ancha", "anchagina", "yetarlicha" degan ma'nolarni beradi.
- It is quite a long walk from my house to the station.
- Spetion is quite a good school for learning English.
- We visited quite an old castle during our trip.
- My little brother is quite a small eater.
- We waited for quite a long time before the bus arrived.

HARDLY, SCARCELY, BARELY

- These have almost negative meanings.

- Meaning: Zo'rg'a | Arang

- HARDLY = almost not

- I hardly know him.
- She hardly goes out.
- It hardly rained.
- He has hardly any money.

- SCARCELY = almost not

- I could scarcely move.

- There were scarcely any rivals.
- We scarcely ever see him.
- She was scarcely able to speak.

- BARELY = only just

- They have barely enough money.
- I could barely hear her.
- The price barely covered the cost.
- She was barely fifteen.

Adverb	Example
very	very good
extremely	extremely difficult
absolutely	absolutely right
enough	old enough
too	too expensive
much	much better
far	far worse
fairly	fairly good
rather	rather bad
quite	quite sure
hardly	hardly know
scarcely	scarcely able
barely	barely enough

Summary

- This issue is extremely important.
- Ali has almost solved the problem.
- Many students are quite motivated.
- The new policy is far more effective than the previous one.
- Some families can barely afford basic necessities.

