

INVERSION

Teskari Soʻz Tartibi — Inversion — bu gapda odatdagi soʻz tartibining oʻzgarishi.

How to invert?

- Odatda ingliz tilida: Subject + Verb
 - Tom is here.
 - I have never seen it.
- Inversionda esa: Verb/Auxiliary + Subject
 - Here is Tom.
 - Never have I seen it.

Negative Adverbs at the Beginning

- Quyidagi soʻzlar gap boshida kelsa inversion boʻladi:
- never | seldom | rarely | hardly ever | scarcely ever | barely | nowhere | little
- Structure: Negative adverb + auxiliary + subject + verb
- Never have I seen such beauty. = I have never seen such beauty.
- Rarely do we meet such people. = We rarely meet such people
- He seldom arrives on time. = Seldom does he arrive on time.
- I knew little what would happen. →
- You can't find better roses anywhere. →

Frequency Adverbs

- Negative / limiting adverb + auxiliary verb + subject + main verb
 - Common frequency adverbs used in inversion:
 - never | rarely | seldom | hardly ever | barely | scarcely
 - I have never seen such a movie. → Never have I seen such a movie.
 - She rarely makes mistakes. → Rarely does she make mistakes.
 - We seldom see him at work. → Seldom do we see him at work.
 - I had barely arrived when it started raining. →
 - He hardly ever calls me. →

No Sooner ... Than

- Structure: No sooner had + subject + past participle + than ...
 - As soon as I had sat down, the phone rang.
 - → No sooner had I sat down than the phone rang.
 - After they had arrived, it started raining.
 - → No sooner had they arrived than it started raining.
 - As soon as she had opened the door, the dog ran out. →
 - When you finish your work, you can you. →
 - As soon as he gets IELTS, he can start his career as a support. →

Hardly / Scarcely / Barely ... When

- Hardly/Scarcely/Barely + had + subject + past participle + when ...
 - I had hardly arrived when it started raining.
 - → Hardly had I arrived when it started raining.
 - She had scarcely entered when the phone rang.
 - → Scarcely had she entered when the phone rang.
 - They had barely left when the accident happened. →
 - Nigina started crying just after I had asked her homework. →

Only + Expression

- Agar Only bilan boshlangan ibora gap boshida kelsa inversion ishlatiladi.
 - Only then did I understand.
 - Only later did she tell the truth.
 - Only after the meeting did we realize the problem.
 - Only by working hard can you succeed.
 - Only when he arrived did we start dinner.
 - Only in spring do flowers bloom.

Only after noun

- Structure: Only after + noun/Ving + auxiliary + subject + main verb
- You can go only after the lesson.
→ Only after the lesson can you go.
- You can get rewards only after collecting coins.
→ Only after collecting coins can you get rewards.
- You can enter only after showing your ID. →
- They can play only after finishing homework. →
- I can relax only after finishing work. →

Only after clause

- Structure: Only after + clause + auxiliary + subject + main verb
- I realized the truth only after he left.
→ Only after he left did I realize the truth.
- She came to class only after the teacher called her.
→ Only afterthe teacher called her did she come to class.
- We understood the problem only after they explained it. →
- She knew the truth only after he told her. →
- They started the work only after the manager arrived. →

Only when clause

- Ma'nosi: "faqat ... paytda / faqat ... bo'lgandagina / shundagina"
- Structure: Only when + clause + auxiliary + subject + verb
- I understood the lesson only when the teacher explained it.
→ Only when the teacher explained it did I understand the lesson.
- She felt happy only when she saw her results.
→ Only when she saw her results did she feel happy.
- We started the lesson only when Sardor arrived. →
- Aziza became confident only when she practiced a lot. →
- Malika left only when the rain stopped. →

Only then

- Structure: Only then + auxiliary + subject + Verb
- She told me everything. I realized the truth only then.
→ She told me everything. Only then did I realize the truth.
- I explained the situation. She understood the problem only then.
→ I explained the situation. Only then did she understand the problem.
- The teacher helped us. We found the answer only then.
→ The teacher helped us. Only then did we find the answer.
- He reviewed the topic twice. He noticed the mistake only then. →
- The students annoyed the teacher. He punished them only then. →

Only later

- Ma'nosi: "faqat keyin / ancha keyin / keyinchalikgina"
- Structure: Only later + auxiliary + subject + verb
 - I understood the problem only later.
→ Only later did I understand the problem.
 - She realized her mistake only later.
→ Only later did she realize her mistake.
 - We found the answer only later. →
 - He discovered the truth only later. →
 - They arrived only later. →

Only by + V-ing

- Ma'nosi: "faqat ... orqali / faqat ... qilibgina / shunday yo'l bilan"
- Structure: Only by + Ving + auxiliary + subject + verb
 - You can succeed only by working hard.
→ Only by working hard can you succeed.
 - We can improve only by practicing every day.
→ Only by practicing every day can we improve.
 - He could pass the exam only by studying harder. →
 - They can solve the problem only by cooperating. →
 - I learned English only by watching movies. →

Only in + noun

- Ma'nosi: "faqat ...da / faqat ... paytida / faqat ... mavsumida"
- Structure: Only in + noun + auxiliary + subject + verb
- You can buy these fruits only in season.
→ Only in season can you buy these fruits.
- You can see these flowers only in spring.
→ Only in spring can you see these flowers.
- People can swim here only in summer. →
- The road is open only in dry weather. →
- You can find this bird only in this region. →

Not until

- Ma'nosi: "...gacha emas", "...dan keyingina", "faqat shundan keyingina"
- Structure: Not until + time/clause + auxiliary + subject + verb
- I didn't understand the lesson until the teacher explained it.
→ Not until the teacher explained it did I understand the lesson.
- She didn't go to bed until midnight.
→ Not until midnight did she go to bed.
- We didn't start the meeting until the manager arrived.
- He didn't realize his mistake until later.
- They didn't leave until the rain stopped.

Not Only ... But Also

- Nafaqat ... balki ... Ham. birinchi qismda inversion ishlatiladi.
- Structure: Not only + auxiliary + subject + verb ..., but also ...
- He speaks not only English but also Korean.
→ Not only does he speak English, but he also speaks Korean.
- She is not only intelligent but also hardworking.
→ Not only is she intelligent, but she is also hardworking.
- They not only won the match but also broke a record. →
- I have not only finished the project but also submitted it. →
- The course not only improved my English but also increased my confidence. →

Under No Circumstances / On No Account

- Ma'nosi: = hech qanday sharoitda, hech qachon, har qanday holatda ham
- Under no circumstances / On no account + auxiliary + subject + verb...
- You must not tell anyone the password.
→ Under no circumstances must you tell anyone the password.
- You should not leave the room.
→ On no account should you leave the room.
- Students must not use their phones during the exam.
- You can never open this door.
- Students must not cheat in the exam.

At no time

- Ma'nosi: hech qachon, biror vaqtda ham emas
- Structure: At no time + auxiliary + subject + verb...
- I was never in danger.
→ At no time was I in danger.
- He didn't complain about the system.
→ At no time did he complain about the system.
- We never considered giving up. →
- She doesn't lose control at all. →
- They don't help each other. →

Not once

- Ma'nosi: bir marta ham emas
- Structure: Not once + auxiliary + subject + verb
- He didn't apologize even once.
→ Not once did he apologize.
- She never called me.
→ Not once did she call me.
- I don't doubt my friends even once. →
- Davron doesn't ask for help at all. →
- We didn't make a mistake even once. →

By no means

- Ma'nosi: hech qachon emas, aslo emas, mutlaqo emas
- Structure: By no means + auxiliary + subject + verb
- The task is not easy.
→ By no means is the task easy.
- She isn't a beginner.
→ By no means is she a beginner.
- This problem isn't solved.
- We are not finished yet.
- The project wasn't a failure.

In no way

- Ma'nosi: hech qanday tarzda emas, aslo emas
- Structure: In no way + auxiliary + subject + verb
 - This is not your fault at all.
→ In no way is this your fault.
 - I don't agree with that idea.
→ In no way do I agree with that idea.
 - The change didn't affect our plans. →
 - He is not responsible for the problem. →
 - Their decision didn't help the situation. →

At No Time / In No Way / By No Means + aux + S...

- He didn't apologize.
- I am not responsible.
- This is not easy by any means.
- Abbos didn't take part in my lessons.
- Kamola can't swim.
- At no time did he apologize.
- In no way am I responsible.
- By no means is this easy.
- At no time did he take part in my...
- In no way can Kamola swim.

So + Adjective

- Structure: So + adjective + be + subject + that
- The view was so beautiful that everyone stopped.
- She is so talented that everyone admires her.
- The exam will be so tricky that some of you may fail.
- Inverted form
- So beautiful was the view that everyone stopped.
- So difficult was the exam that many students failed.
- So strong was the wind that trees fell.

Such + Noun

- Structure: Such + be + subject + noun
- His popularity was such that everyone knew him.
- → Such was his popularity that everyone knew him.
- The damage was such that the road was closed.
- → Such was the damage that the road was closed.
- Nilufar's beauty was such that people admired her. →
- The weather was such that we couldn't go out. →

Movement Adverbs

- Normal: Subject + Verb + Adverb of direction (present/past simple)
- Inversion: Adverb of direction + Verb + Subject
- away | down | up | in | out | off | over | back | round | around
 - The bird flew up. → Up flew the bird.
 - The students rushed out. → Out rushed the students.
 - The ball rolled down. →
 - The thief ran away. →
- Pronoun bilan inversion bo'lmaydi
- Away they went. | Off I went. | Out he came.

Place Expressions

- Structure: Place expression + Verb + Subject
- A book lay on the table. → On the table lay a book.
- An old woman sat in the corner. → In the corner sat an old woman.
- A dog lay under the tree. → Under the tree lay a dog.
- Kamron stood at the end of the street. →
- A small house stood beside the river. →

Here / There Inversion

- Biror narsa paydo bo'lganida, kelayotganda yoki ketayotganda ishlatiladi.
 - Here comes the bus. → The bus is coming.
 - Here is Mahmud. → Mahmud is here.
 - There go our future leaders. → Our future leaders are going.
 - There comes the teacher. → The teacher is coming.
- Pronoun bo'lsa inversion bo'lmaydi
 -  Here he comes.  Here comes he.
 -  There it goes.  There goes it.

Conditional Inversion – Type1

- Structure: If + present simple (be) → Should + subject + be
- If you are free, call me. → Should you be free, call me.
- If she is ready, we will start. → Should she be ready, we will start.
- If they are interested, tell them. → Should they be interested, tell them.
- If you are ready, let me give you a test. →
- If the time is over, you must stop. →

Conditional Inversion – Type1 - N

- If + present simple (be negative) → Should + subject + not + be
 - If you aren't free, we will wait.
→ Should you not be free, we will wait.
 - If he isn't here, we will start later.
→ Should he not be here, we will start later.
 - If they aren't interested, we will cancel it. →
 - If the water isn't hot enough, I won't use it. →

Conditional Inversion – Type1

- Structure: If + present simple → Should + subject + verb
- If you work hard, you will succeed. → Should you work hard, you will succeed.
- If he comes early, we will start. → Should he come early, we will start.
- If you need help, call me. → Should you need help, call me.
- If Ali struggles to understand the topic, the support teachers will help him. →
- If Akbar keeps studying hard, he will get 9 from IELTS. →

Conditional Inversion – Type1 - N

- If + present simple (negative) → Should + subject + not + V1
 - If you don't practice, you will not improve.
→ Should you not practice, you will not improve.
 - If he doesn't listen, he will make mistakes.
→ Should he not listen, he will make mistakes.
 - If they don't follow the rules, they will be punished. →
 - If you don't learn everything I teach you, you will fail. →

Conditional Inversion – Type2

- Structure: If + subject + were → Were + subject...
 - If she were here, she would help us.
 - → Were she here, she would help us.
 - If he were rich, he would travel the world.
 - → Were he rich, he would travel the world.
 - If they were tired, they would rest. →
 - If I were you, I would study so hard. →
 - If you were me, what would you do? →

Conditional Inversion – Type2 - N

- If + subject + were (negative) → Were + subject + not + adjective/verb
 - If I weren't busy, I would help you.
→ Were I not busy, I would help you.
 - If he weren't so tired, he would come with us.
→ Were he not so tired, he would come with us.
 - If they weren't at home, we would visit them. →
 - If the teacher weren't here now, we would be sleeping. →

Conditional Inversion – Type2

- Structure: If + past simple → Should + subject + base verb
 - If he studied harder, he would pass the exam.
→ Should he study harder, he would pass the exam.
 - If she worked more, she would earn more money.
→ Should she work more, she would earn more money.
 - If they arrived early, they would get a seat. →
 - If you asked more questions, you would learn more. →

Conditional Inversion – Type2 - N

- Structure: If + past simple (negative) → Had + subject + not + V3
 - If she didn't make mistakes, she would pass the exam.
→ Had she not made mistakes, she would pass the exam.
 - If they didn't lose time, they would finish earlier.
→ Had they not lost time, they would finish earlier.
 - If I didn't forget my notes, I would do better. →
 - If you didn't waste your time, you would find time for your study. →

Conditional Inversion – Type2

- Structure: If + past simple (had) → Were + subject + (not)+ to + verb
 - If she had more time, she would help us.
→ Were she to have more time, she would help us.
 - If they had a chance, they would join us.
→ Were they to have a chance, they would join us.
 - If I didn't have a lot of work now, I would go with you. →
 - If you had a million dollars, what would you do? →

Conditional Inversion – Type 3

- Structure: If + past perfect → Had + subject + V3/ed
 - If I had known the truth, I would have told you.
→ Had I known the truth, I would have told you.
 - If Iroda had arrived earlier, she would have seen Tomsonjon.
→ Had Iroda arrived earlier, she would have seen Tomsonjon.
 - If Husanboy had studied harder, he would have passed. →
 - If you had come yesterday, you could have learned the topic. →

Conditional Inversion – Type 3 - N

- Structure: If + subject + had + not + V3 → Had + subject + not + V3
 - If I hadn't studied, I would have failed.
→ Had I not studied, I would have failed.
 - If she hadn't called me, I wouldn't have known about the exam.
→ Had she not called me, I wouldn't have known about the exam.
 - If they hadn't arrived on time, they would have missed the train. →
 - If you hadn't helped him yesterday, he couldn't have finished his work. →

Conditional Inversion – Type Mixed

- Structure: If + past perfect → Had + subject + (not) + V3/ed
 - If I hadn't studied hard, I wouldn't be successful now.
→ Had I not studied hard, I wouldn't be successful now.
 - If she had moved to London, she wouldn't have this job now.
→ Had she moved to London, she wouldn't have this job now.
 - If Akmal hadn't trained earlier, he wouldn't be strong now. →
 - If Anvar had tried harder, he would be a doctor now. →

Type	Example
Never	Never have I seen...
Rarely	Rarely do we meet...
Hardly...when	Hardly had I arrived when...
No sooner...than	No sooner had I sat down than...
Only then	Only then did I understand
Not until	Not until midnight did he arrive
Not only	Not only did he pass...
Here comes	Here comes the bus
In came	In came the teacher
Place inversion	In the garden sat a cat
Were I	Were I rich...
Had I known	Had I known...
Should you need	Should you need help...