

THIRD CONDITIONAL

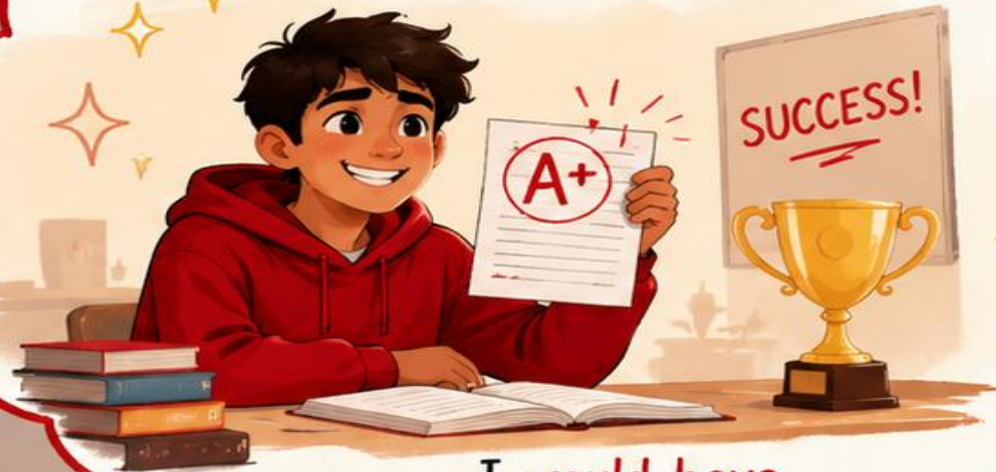

The third conditional is used to talk about imaginary situations in the past and their imaginary results.

If + past perfect,
would have + past participle.

Example:

If I had studied harder, I would have passed the exam. ★

If I had studied harder...

...I would have passed the exam.

Remember:

It's about the past...
It didn't happen...
It's just imagined. ♥

You can do it! ♥

THIRD CONDITIONAL (TYPE 3)

- The Third Conditional is used to talk about:
 - Unreal past situations
 - Things that did not happen in the past
 - Regrets
 - Criticism
 - Imagined past results
- In Type 3, both the condition and the result are impossible now because the past cannot be changed.
