

RELATIVE CLAUSE

ADJECTIVE CLAUSE

WHAT IS AN ADJECTIVE CLAUSE?

- An adjective clause (relative clause) gives more information about a noun.
- It works like an adjective.
- It usually comes after the noun it modifies.
- Example:
 - The girl who is wearing a red dress is my sister.
 - The clause describes the girl.

STRUCTURE

- Noun + relative clause
- Relative words:
 - who
 - whom
 - whose
 - which
 - that
 - where
- ... noun + relative word + S + verb + C ...
- ... noun + relative word + verb + C...

RELATIVE PRONOUNS

Relative pro	Used For	Example
who	people	The boy who called me is my friend.
whom	people (object)	The woman whom we met was kind.
whose	possession	The man whose car was stolen is sad.
which	things/animals	The phone which I bought is expensive.
that	people/things	The book that I read was interesting.
where	places	The café where we met was quiet.

MODIFYING THE SUBJECT

- The adjective clause can describe the subject of the sentence.
- Examples:
 - The student who studies every night gets excellent grades.
 - The movie that we watched was exciting.
 - The teacher who teaches us English is friendly.
 - The house which stands on the corner is very old.
 - The restaurant where we ate dinner was crowded.
 - The man whose son lives abroad works here.
- The clauses describe the subjects:
student, movie, teacher, house, restaurant, man

MODIFYING THE OBJECT

- The adjective clause can also describe the object.
- Examples:
 - I met the woman whose husband is a doctor.
 - She bought the car that was parked outside.
 - We visited the teacher who helped us last year.
 - I know the boy who won the competition.
 - They watched the movie which won an award.
 - He sold the house that was near the park.
- The clauses describe the objects:
woman, car, teacher, boy, movie, house

WHO / WHOM

- WHO → subject / WHOM → object
- Examples:
 - The girl who called me is my cousin.
 - The man whom we visited was very kind.
- Note:
 - In everyday English, whom is often replaced by who.
 - Common spoken English:
 - The man who we visited was very kind.

WHOSE

- WHOSE shows possession.
- Whose + noun - always
- Examples:
 - I know the girl whose brother is a pilot.
 - The man whose wallet was lost called the police.
 - The student whose phone rang was embarrassed.
- ~~Wrong – whose + verb/ subject pronoun~~

WHICH / THAT

- WHICH → things
- THAT → people or things
- ✓ Examples:
 - The book which I borrowed is excellent.
 - The cake that she made was delicious.
 - The car that he bought is very fast.
 - The computer which stopped working is old.

WHERE

- WHERE is used for places.
- ...where + subject /noun + verb + C...
- Examples:
 - The school where I studied is very large.
 - This is the café where we first met.
 - The city where he lives is beautiful.
- ...where + ~~verb~~ – this is wrong

IMPORTANT POSITION RULE

- The adjective clause comes immediately after the noun it modifies.
- ✓ Correct:
 - The boy who is wearing glasses is my cousin.
- ✗ Incorrect:
 - Who is wearing glasses the boy is my cousin.

SHORTENED RELATIVE CLAUSES

- Sometimes we can shorten the clause.
- Examples:
- The man standing near the door is my uncle.
(= The man who is standing near the door...)
- The book written by Tom is popular.
(= The book that was written by Tom...)

PRACTICE

■ Fill in the gaps:

- The boy ____ called me is my friend.
- The house ____ we bought is very old.
- I know the girl ____ brother is a doctor.
- The café ____ we met was crowded.
- The movie ____ won the award was amazing.

ANSWERS

- 1.who
- 2.that / which
- 3.whose
- 4.where
- 5.that / which

